“ WOW, what an amazing man. He was loved by soooo many, including both of us. He came by our house, with Ty just last week, to share bass filets they had caught. If someone came in the Biscuit Barn and didn't have money, Johnny would always buy them a biscuit.He always has a big smile on his face, was always friendly and always told us to come see him anytime. When he was in the hospital, Connie called and checked on him and he told us how much he appreciated it. When he found out Connie was sick, he came by to tell us to call him if we needed ANYTHING. He was so good to my Mother up at the church every Sunday she could attend the services. This community has definitely lost a very caring, loving and helpful man and we have truly lost OUR VERY GOOD FRIEND. Rest in Peace, Mr. Johnny. Connie and Carole Bell

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family. Jerry and I first met Johnny in 1961 when he did some grading for us in our yard on Frazier Road Linda and Tommy were in the same grade at Rehoboth and Shamrock. I used to visit with Carol when Betty Segars and I walked together throughout the neighborhood. Great man who touched many lives.

“ Condolences to Johnny's family. I first met Johnny at the Biskit Barn. I am from California and was working in the area. When Johnny spotted me, he immediately asked me who I was and where I was from. He invited me to come back and have coffee with him and his friends, and so I had the pleasure of visiting with him several times - a great man. He was funny and welcoming. I'll never forget meeting him. God bless Johnny and his family. I found a photo that I have capturing our brief friendship!

“ Johnny was truly a great neighbor when we lived close to him in Hartwell. Johnny helped us bury many cows that died from eating poisonous hay years ago. He was a good neighbor. His family all moved close by and were very good citizens. Carole did our county a favor by driving a bus for the school system. We loved the Wilsons.
